It may be summer, but it's time to plan for fall, and what better way to celebrate than to volunteer at the newly renamed Fall for Fairfax Kidsfest. The 16th annual festival is a free-admission event of seasonal family activities – scarecrow-making, pumpkin-painting, petting zoo, hayrides and more. Fall for Fairfax Kidsfest will take place on The Ellipse at the Fairfax County Government Center. Volunteer shifts are 3-4 hours, and volunteers must be 14 years of age or older.

Volunteers are needed in the following areas:

Building Monitors – Prevent trash, food, drinks and scarecrow straw from entering the Government Center
Costumed Character – Become or escort a costumed character by walking around the site and greeting children (9a-1p or 1p-5p)
Hayride Line Monitor – Maintain the lines of people waiting to take the hayride
Info/Lost Parents/Merchandise – Distribute information, give directions, answer questions and sell merchandise
KidZone/Kidway Midway Line Monitors – Maintain orderly lines and check wristbands of children entering “ride” area
KidZone/Kidway Midway Sale – Collect money, redeem printed tickets for wristbands & hand out wristbands to children
Kids Attractions – Assist children and adults in making and decorating various fall crafts (pumpkin decorating etc.)
Petting Zoo Line Monitors – Maintain orderly lines of people entering the petting zoo area
Scarecrows – Assist in making scarecrows and maintaining the area (will be working with hay)
Surveys/Volunteer Drinks – Ensure event surveys are completed & pass drinks out to volunteers with a drink coupon
Trackless Train Line Monitor – Maintain order in the lines of people waiting to take the ride
Volunteer Check-In – Check in volunteers, answer questions and give directions
